ANOTHER YEAR, ANOTHER CHANCE

The good news of the Gospel is that God is a God of another chance. It's a good thing He is. We mess up so frequently and so terribly that without His gift of another chance, we would have no hope of ever reversing the self-destructive patterns of our lives.

It may be that many of us feel that we have messed up so badly that we are beyond the limits of God's mercy. Not so, and I can prove it! The proof is that He allowed us to see the sunrise of year 2021.

Be not deceived, God does get fed up with our wicked actions and our evil ways. He will not forever wink at our folly. He has a timetable for everything. And in His own good time, if we fail to take advantage of His grace of another chance, He will end it for us in His own way.

Jesus told a parable about an unfruitful fig tree. The gardener had done all he could do to make the tree fruitful, but after all his labor, there was still no fruit. The owner wanted to cut it down and plant another tree in its place. But the gardener interceded and said, "No, don't cut it down. Let it alone this year also" (St. Luke 13:7).

This is another year and another chance. You may not have kept all the resolutions you made last year. You may even have broken the promises you made to yourself. It really doesn't matter. When God gives us a new day, He also looks at us with a set of brand new eyes.

Start over. He'll give you grace and strength. It's another year. We have another chance. God be praised!

Be Blessed.
